Original Preface

In selecting and arranging the following texts and subjects, I have been much struck with the vast variety and extent of those divine instructions, on all important subjects, which God so munificently imparted to man in his Holy Word. I have always considered it the principal object of a religious instructor to lead those whom he teaches, as nearly as possible, to the fountainhead of divine truth. All human compositions are necessarily defective, and they are only excellent so far as they approximate to the divine standard. Teachers may feel a holy confidence as to the instructions they communicate, when they are enabled to declare "Which things we speak not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual."
(1 Cor 2:13)

I may also observe that the plain and nervous language used in the English version of the Bible appears to me exceedingly well adapted for the rising generation : it is generally understood ; and its simple, dignified, forcible, and venerable, style renders it a most appropriate medium for the communication of religious instruction.

What knowledge can be so important to our youth as an acquaintance with the Holy Scriptures? "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto, according to thy word." (Ps 119:9) "My heart's desire and prayer to God" for the young, is, that they may be blessed with a thoroughly scriptural education. May imitators of Timothy be found in all our schools, and in every family ; to each of whom we may say : "From a child thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus." (2 Tim 3:15)

I have endeavored, in the ensuing pages, to select those texts which I thought most particularly calculated for the young. It has been my study throughout, to avoid every expression which could give offense to any body of evangelical Christians. I commend this little Work to the blessing of that God who has promised, "My word shall not return unto me void ; but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Is 55:11)

I take this opportunity of remarking, that it appears to me quite unnecessary for the children to commit to memory the chapter and verses which state from whence the texts are selected, and which I have put in parenthesis ; it will be enough for them to learn the Holy Words, which are of inspired authority.

For the benefit of those children who are not sufficiently forward to learn the whole of this Catechism, I have published an Abridgment, price Four Pence. – W.F.L.

Preface to the “Third” Edition

In his original preface, Lloyd stated:

I have endeavored, in the ensuing pages, to select those texts which I thought most particularly calculated for the young. It has been my study throughout, to avoid every expression which could give offense to any body of evangelical Christians.

I feel that not only should his book not offend evangelicals, but that it should not offend those of us affiliated, specifically or tangentially, with the Liberal Catholic Movement (LCM). Granted, Lloyd would have most assuredly been uncomfortable with Liberal Catholic writers such as Cooper, Hodson, Leadbeater, and Wedgwood, and with mystical/theosophical Christians such as Atkinson, Besant, Heindel, and Steiner, and certainly with our belief in “apokatastasis”, or universal reconciliation. We, however, should be able to appreciate all groups, even when we might not fully understand, or agree with, their interpretations. It will be obvious to LCM readers that this is an internally self-referential catechism: the Bible on the Bible, without external commentary. Still, this text may serve as the basis from which we delve further into possible meanings of the scriptures. His text has not knowingly been altered but for re-typing, re-formatting, and 4 questions that were worded anti-Semiticly. Any other mistakes are mine.

Having tried to set an ecumenical tone, it should be pointed out that, from a modern perspective, his Bible Catechism is sometimes lacking in modern methods of interpretation.

I would like to provide three examples:

When did Jesus die?

Mark is explicit: After the evening Passover meal with his disciples, Jesus is crucified the next morning at 9 AM and dies at 3 PM. Consult (Mk 15:25-36).

John is explicit: Jesus is crucified before the evening Passover meal at 12 PM. Consult (Jn 19:14).

Which women visited the tomb?

Mark recounts: Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome. Consult (Mk 16:1).

Luke recounts: Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and others. Consult (Lk 24:10).

Matthew recounts: Mary Magdalene and the other Mary. Consult (Matt 28:1)

John recounts: Mary Magdalene alone. Consult (Jn 20:10-16)

What happened at the tomb?

Mark's Resurrection account: The entrance stone was rolled away and there was one angelic being already there. Consult (Mk 16:1-4).

Luke's Resurrection account: The entrance stone was rolled away and two angelic beings suddenly appeared. Consult (Lk 24:1-4).

Matthew's Resurrection account: There was an earthquake, the stone then rolled away, and one angelic being descended which frightened the guards. Consult (Matt 28:1-4).

John's resurrection account: The entrance stone was removed and two angelic beings were already there. Consult (Jn 20:10-12)

There is no acknowledgement of these differences and no attempts to reconcile them. Still, for good reason did Lloyd entitle his book Bible Catechism. For in 4:34, he cites the following:

34. What is said in the Epistle to Timothy?

Great is the mystery of godliness : God was manifest in the flesh. (1 Tim 3:16)

There are no condemnations cast toward the Jewish-Christian Ebionites, the Marcionite-Docetists, the Diphysite-Nestorians, the Monophysite-Eutychians, nor the

Bible Catechism - 1823

Chalcedonian-Orthodox, not even the Valentinian or Basilidean Gnostics. Lloyd is a literalist without being a Condemning-Fundamentalist. He is true to his purpose of striving to avoid offense in avoiding deep Theology, Christology, and, of course, Mariology.

He does not stir up sacramental arguments regarding the Eucharist: there are no extended manifestos of transubstantiation, consubstantion, receptionism, virtualism, nor memorialism. There is also no denomination shaming. Contrast this with the 1774 Protestant Dissenters Catechism which mentions "papist bigots".

I have only two remaining points: firstly, a missing passage that Lloyd did not cite and that I rarely see cited, anywhere; and secondly, a rather complete lack of Marian citations.

Issue One: Why didn't Lloyd have this?

In the war against Midian, what battle orders did Moses give to his warriors?

Now therefore, slay all the males among the children, and kill all the women that have known man by carnal copulation. But all the women-children that have not known carnal copulation, keep alive for yourselves. (Num 31:17,18)

And that singular passage is why I am not a proponent of bibliolatry: the Bible may be inspired – by man's desire to know God- but it is not infallible nor ineffable. Since his book was targeted for children, perhaps that is why this passage was not selected. Thinking adults should not, must not, gloss over it. It cannot be of God.

Issue Two: What about Mary? This rather sparse citation, 4:9, is all that Lloyd included:

9. What is related of the Virgin Mary, the Mother of Christ?

And she brought forth her first-born Son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger. (Lk 2:7)

Section 41, which follows at the end of the text, attempts to correct the situation.

This "edition" is nothing more than a personal project but, which shared, I hope will bring a different perspective to the LCM reader.

Passages regarding the vicarious atonement through the shedding of blood have been highlighted in red, but they are still not dogmatic or creedal requirements.

1. THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

1. Who inspired the scriptures?

The prophecy came not of old time by the will of man; but holy men of God as they were moved by the Holy Ghost. (2 Pet 1:21)

2. For what uses is the whole word of God given?

All scripture is given by the inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness. (2 Tim 3:16)

3. How should we esteem the authority of the Bible?

Not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God. (1 Thes 2:13)

4. Were the scriptures written for our good?

Whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we, through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might have hope. (Rom 15:4)

5. Does Christ command us to search the scriptures?

Search the scriptures ; for in them ye think ye have eternal life ; and they are they which testify of me. (Jn 5:39)

6. What was the character of the Bereans?

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so ; therefore many of them believed. (Acts 17:11-12)

7. Is divine help necessary to understand the scriptures?

Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures. (Lk 24:45)

8. What is a suitable prayer when reading the Bible?

Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. - Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law ; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. (Ps 119:18,34)

9. With what dispositions should we receive the word of God?

As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby. (1 Pet 2:2)

10. How should the word of Christ dwell in us?

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom. (Col 3:16)

11. What is our spiritual support?

It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. (Matt 4:4 & Deu 8:3)

12. Does the word of God search the heart and conscience?

The word of God is quick and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow ; and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. (Heb 4:12)

13. What are the blessed influences of God's holy word?

My doctrine shall drop as the rain, my speech shall distill as the dew ; as the small rain upon the tender herb, and as the showers upon the grass. (Deu 32:2)

14. Is the word of God fruitful and successful?

As the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater ; so shall my word be that goeth out of my mouth : but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. (Is 55:10,11)

15. How does Christ describe the state of the believer in his word?

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come unto condemnation ; but is passed from death unto life. (Jn 5:24)

16. Does the word of God in the heart preserve from sin?

Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. (Ps 119:11)

17. Do Christ and his word alone teach the knowledge of eternal life?

LORD, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the words of eternal life. (Jn 6:68)

18. Will every part of the divine word be fulfilled?

Verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. (Matt 5:18)

19. "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way?"

By taking heed thereto, according to thy word. (Ps 119:9)

20. Does the word of God strengthen young Christians?

I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. (1 Jn 2:14)

21. How did Job value the words of God?

I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. (Job 23:12)

22. How did the Psalmist esteem the scriptures?

The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver. (Ps 119:72)

23. How does the Psalmist describe the excellencies of the word of God?

The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul ; the testimony of the LORD is sure, making the wise simple ; the statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart : the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes ; the fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever ; the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether : more to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold ; sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb. Moreover, by them is thy servant warned ; and in keeping of them there is great reward. (Ps 19:7-11)

24. In what is the good man's constant delight?

His delight is in the law of the LORD ; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. (Ps 1:2)

25. Are the words of God pure?

The words of the LORD are pure words ; as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. (Ps 12:6)

26. Is keeping the commands of God a test of our real characters?

He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him : but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected. (1 Jn 2:4-5)

27. How does Christ teach us to judge whether we are his true disciples?

If ye continue in my word, then ye are my disciples indeed ; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. (Jn 8:31,32)

28. Would those persons, who refuse to believe the Bible, be convinced by any other evidence?

If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead. (Lk 16:31)

29. What will be the punishment of those who despise the word of the LORD?

As the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust ; because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the holy one of Israel. (Is 5:24)

30. How will those, who have been ashamed of Christ and his gospel, appear at the day of judgment?

Whosoever shall be ashamed of me and my words, of him shall the Son of Man be ashamed, when he shall come into his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels. (Lk 9:26)

31. What denunciation has God given against those who add to, or take away from, the scriptures?

I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book ; If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book. And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. (Rev 22:18,19)

5. How was this prophecy fulfilled?

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them : and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not ; for of such is the kingdom of God. 9. How did Christ regard his young and weak disciples?

Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones ; for I say unto you, that in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. (Matt 18:10)

A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench.
(Is 42:3 and Matt 12:20)

10. How does Christ esteem acts of kindness done to his young or weak disciples?

Whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a d disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. (Matt 10:42)

11. Did Christ commend the praises of children?

And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosannah* to the son of David ; they were sore displeased, and said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea ; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? (Matt 21:15, 16) (See also Ps 8:2)

(Ps 103:5)

29. How did the Psalmist express his prayers and wishes for the young?

That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth ; that our daughters may be as corner-stones, polished after the similitude of a palace. (Ps 144:12)

30. Will God bring the young into judgment?

Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth ; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes ; but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. (Ec 11:9)

31. Was Samuel an instance of early piety?

The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid ; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed ; their young ones shall lie down together : and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the suckling child shall play on the hole of the asp , and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my mountain : for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea. (Is 2:6-10)

3. When men acknowledged the existence of a God, was their conduct consistent with this belief?

When they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful ; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened : professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like unto corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things. Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. (Ro 1:21,22,23, and 25)

4. Was the knowledge of God esteemed by men?

They did not like to retain God in their knowledge. (Ro 1:28)

5. To whom did the men of Athens direct their worship?

7. How did God make the brightest revelation of himself?

God, who, at sundry times, and in divers manners, spake in times past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son. (Heb 1:1,2)

8. Did Jesus Christ announce his power to reveal the knowledge of God?

All things are delivered to me of my Father : and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father ; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. (Lk 10:22)

9. What did Christ say as to the nature of God?

God is a spirit ; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth. (Jn 4:24)

God is one, self-existent, eternal.

10. What has God said of himself?

I am that I am. (Ex 3:14)

I am the first, and I am the last ; and beside me there is no god. (Is 44:6)

There is no god beside me ; a just god and a savior : there is none beside me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth ; for I am God, and there is none else. (Is 45:21,22)

11. What have the inspired writers stated as to the eternal God?

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. (Ps 90:2)

One day is with the LORD as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. (2 Pet 3:8)

Now unto the King eternal, immortal, and invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen. (1 Tim 1:17)

12. How are the power and greatness of God described in the Scriptures?

(1 Pet 3:3-4)

Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? Let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil : whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Our Savior Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel. (2 Tim 1:10)

24. Should the death of Christ deliver his saints from the fear of dying?

Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same ; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil ; and deliver them who through fear of death were all their life-time subject to bondage. (Heb 2:14,15)

Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. (Rev 2:10)

28. Are true Christians very anxious to glorify God both in life and death?

Whether we live, we live unto the LORD ; and whether we die, we die unto the LORD : whether we live therefore or die, we are the LORD'S : for to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be LORD both of the dead and living. (Ro 14:8,9)

37. THE RESURRECTION

1. How did Moses prove that there would be a resurrection of the dead?

That the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he called the LORD the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob ; for he is not a God of the dead, but of the living ; for all live unto him. (Lk 20:37,38)

3. How does Daniel refer to the resurrection?

And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake ; some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament ; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever. (Dan 12:2,3)

There shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust. (Acts 24:15)

6. How does Christ allude to the resurrection of the children of God?

They which shall be accounted worthy to obtain the world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage. Neither can they die any more ; for they are equal unto the angels, and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection. (Lk 20:35,36)

7. What will take place at the time of the resurrection?

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. (1 Cor 15:51-53)

I am the resurrection and the life : he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. (Jn 11:25)

Many bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. (Matt 27:53,53)

10. How did St. Peter and the other Apostles announce the resurrection of Christ to the people?

The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and Savior, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept. (1 Cor 15:20)

* 3rd edition editor: The "Jews" could not execute capital punishment. It was a Roman sentence for sedition, insurrection. The Sanhedrin may have colluded with Pilate, but the populace could never demand it. The "Jews" did not kill Christ.

 3rd edition editor: And Mary Magdalene before all these.

14. Will the saints of Christ be blessed at the resurrection?

If we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. – The LORD himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God : and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we which are alive , and remain, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the LORD in the air : and so shall we ever be with the LORD. (1 Thes 4:14,16, and 17)

15. What contrast will there be between the body of the saint when committed to the grave, and when it is raised from the dead?

It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption ; it is sown in dishonor ; it is raised in glory : it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power : it is sown a natural body ; it is raised a spiritual body. (1 Cor 15:42-44)

16. Will death be then abolished?

When this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written : Death is swallowed up in victory. (1 Cor 15:54)

17. How do Christians triumph over death and the grave?

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law : but thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our LORD Jesus Christ. (1 Cor 15:55,56, and 57)

(Dan 7:9,10)

8. How does St. John describe the day of judgment?

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away ; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God ; and the books were opened : and another book was opened, which is the book of life : and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it ; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them : and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire. (Rev 20:11-15)

9. How does St. Peter describe the day of judgment?

The heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. – But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night ; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. (2 Pet 3:7,10-13)

The angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains, under darkness, until the judgment of the great day. (Jd 6)

14. How did Christ warn those cities in which he performed many mighty works of the day of judgment?

Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell : for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.
(Matt 11:21-24)

15. Does abused mercy peculiarly aggravate the sinner's guilt and punishment?

Despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering ; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth the to repentance? A certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. – Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the LORD. And again, The LORD shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. (Heb 10:27,30, and 31)

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the LORD the righteous judge shall give me at that day ; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing. (2 Tim 4:8)

39. HEAVEN

1. Does Christ exhort us to fix our treasures and our hearts in heaven?

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal : but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal. For where your treasure is, there will your heart also be. (Matt 6:19-21)

2. How did Christ refer to his coming again?

Then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven ; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory : and he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. (Matt 24:30,31)

3. What are the exalted hopes of true Christians as to heaven?

Our conversation is in heaven ; from whence also we look for the Savior, the LORD Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself. (Phi 3:20,21)

4. How does St. Peter express his gratitude to God for the hope of heaven?

Blessed be the God and Father of our LORD Jesus Christ, which, according to his abundant mercy, hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you. (1 Pet 1:3,4)

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. – Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. (Rev 5:12,13)

7. Will great numbers be employed in heaven praising God and the Lamb?

Lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and peoples, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands ; and cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. 11. Will the joys of heaven present a striking contrast to the troubles of this life?

These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple : and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters : and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. (Rev 7:14-17)

12. Will the presence of God be the glory and joy of the saints in heaven?

Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people ; and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes ; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying ; neither shall there be any more pain : for the former things are passed away. (Rev 21:3,4)

13. Will the happiness of heaven infinitely exceed the purest earthly enjoyments?

And I saw no temple therein : for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it : for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it : and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honor into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day : for there shall be no night there. And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie : but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life. (Rev 21:22-27)

14. Will every evil be excluded from heaven, and perfect bliss enjoyed?

There shall be no more curse : but the throne of God and the Lamb shall be in it ; and his servants shall serve him : and they shall see his face ; and his name shall be in their foreheads. And there shall be no night there ; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun ; for the LORD God giveth them light : and they shall reign for ever and ever. (Rev 22:3-5)

Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. (Matt 25:41)

4. Must every sin, however dear, be relinquished, lest we be cast into hell?

If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee : for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. (Matt 5:29,30)

Their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. (Mr 9:44)

7. Will their character as well as their state be then unalterable?

The time is at hand. He that is unjust, let him be unjust still ; and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still ; and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still ; and he that is holy, let him be holy still. (Rev 22:10,11)

8. How does Christ show the difference between the pious beggar and the rich sinner, after death?

And it came to pass that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom : the rich man also died, and was buried ; and in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham far off, and Lazarus in his bosom. (Lk 16:22,23)

9. Will Christ, who is now made known as a Savior, hereafter appear to take vengeance on his enemies?

The LORD Jesus shall be revealed from heaven, with his mighty angels, in flaming fire, taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our LORD Jesus Christ ; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the LORD, and from the glory of his power ; when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe. (1 Thes 1:7-10)

10. What will be the sinner's punishment in hell?

The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation ; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb : and the smoke of their torments ascendeth up for ever and ever : and they have no rest day or night. (Rev 14:10,11)

11. How did God punish the rebel angels?

God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into the chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment. (2 Pet 2:4)

12. How will God punish Satan?

And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever. (Rev 20:10)

The sinners in Zion are afraid : fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings? (Is 33:14)

14. What will be the punishment of the "evil servant" who says, "My lord delayeth his coming" and therefore plunges into sin?

15. In the time of God's vengeance, what will sinners of all classes say to the rocks and mountains?

Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb : for the great day of his wrath is come ; and who shall be able to stand? (Rev 6:16,17)

16. What will Christ say to those who have made many professions, and had many privileges, but still have been "workers of iniquity?"

But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are ; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last. (Lk 13:27-30)

And the Angel went in unto her, and said, Hail thou that art freely beloved, the LORD is with thee; blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be. Then the Angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favor with God. For lo, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bear a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the most High, and the LORD God shall give unto him the throne of his father David. And he shall reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom shall be no end. Then said Mary unto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man And the Angel answered, and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the most High shall overshadow thee; therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the Son of God. (Lk 1:28-35)

6. What song of praise did Mary sing after Elizabeth's proclamation of blessing?

Then Mary said, My soul magnifieth the Lord, And my spirit rejoiceth in God my Saviour. For he hath looked on the poor degree of his servant; for behold, from henceforth shall all ages call me blessed, Because he that is mighty hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name. And his mercy is from generation to generation on them that fear him. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty. He hath upholden Israel his servant to be mindful of his mercy. As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and his seed forever. (Lk 1:46-55)
